ON THE FINANCES

OF THE

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

For the Year 1823.

MADE TO THE LEGISLATURE

BY THE

AUDITOR GENERAL,

AGREEABLY TO LAW.

A large, stylized handwritten signature, likely of the Auditor General, is written over a horizontal line. The signature is in dark ink and appears to be a cursive or semi-cursive script.

Auditor General's Office,

December 22, 1823.

GENTLEMEN,

IN obedience to the provisions of the 46th section of the "act of 30th March, 1811," directing the State Treasurer and Auditor General to deliver annually, statements of the financial concerns of the Commonwealth, to the Clerk of the House of Representatives. I have prepared, and caused to be printed, the following abstracts of the public accounts, commencing with the first day of December, 1822, and ending with the 29th November, 1823, both days inclusive; six hundred copies of which have been delivered to that officer, agreeably to the directions of the act already referred to.

The schedules from No. 1. to No. 14, give a general view of the monies received, and from No. 1, to No. 13, of the expenditures, each shewing the nature of the accounts, upon which public monies have been received, and of the claims upon which they have been paid away, during the above period; with an appendix exhibiting a concise statement of appropriations remaining unpaid, on the first December, 1823, &c.

It may be proper to remark, that exclusive of the amount of Auction Duties, contained in the present statement, or report, William Lippincot, auctioneer, paid into the Bank of Pennsylvania, on the 28th November last, for the quarter ending 31st October, 1823, $3,749 17; and that John Harrison, Recorder of Deeds for the city and county of Philadelphia, also paid into the same Bank, on account of office fees, on the 29th of same month, $1,348 24, but in both cases, the Tellers certificates of deposit, did not come to hand until after the closing of the State Treasurer's monthly report, for November. These sums, and the sum of $250 paid into the Treasury on the 1st instant, by the managers of the Susquehanna and York Borough Turnpike Road Company, for dividend declared in November last, belong more properly to this year's account, and would, if introduced, have encreased the aggregate of receipts for the present year, $5,347 41.—These items will, now, of course, appear in the account of receipts of the ensuing year, for the reasons stated.

Very respectfully,

I have the honor to be,

Gentlemen, your Obedient servant,

JAMES DUNCAN.

*To the Senate and House of Representatives
Of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.*
